Our Reasons for Pride

- In 2007-08, Trezevant Career and Technology Center celebrated the grand opening of the Trezevant Savings Bank, the state's first in-school, student-operated bank. The bank is open on Tuesdays and Thursdays.
- Two students from Trezevant Career and Technology ranked in the top 10 of The Commercial Appeal's Academic All-Stars for two consecutive years.
- For seven consecutive years, Trezevant Career and Technology Center has received multiple grants for instructional assistance and community service projects.
- For seven consecutive years, Trezevant Career and Technology Center teachers have participated in ongoing Character Education staff development, including the conference in St. Louis, Missouri.
- Trezevant Career and Technology Center has a wide range of student organizations, including Family, Careers and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA), Future Business Leaders of America (FBLA), Future Farmers of America (FFA), Health Occupations Students of America (HOSA) and SkillsUSA. Students participate and compete in these organizations' competitions on the local, regional, state and national levels.
