To the Parents and Community:

As you know, our school and the District are dedicated to ensuring that our students succeed. While we have held high expectations for our students, the federal No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (NCLB) has set new standards for students to meet.

We are proud to announce that Germanshire is in Good Standing and made 2007 AYP as required by No Child Left Behind. In fact, we have surpassed the “school” benchmarks for year 2010! We have set our own goal of 100% mastery for each of our demographic groups THIS YEAR! We count on our partnership of home and school working together to reach this goal.

Subject	All Students	White	Hispanic	Black	Asian/ Pacific Islander	Native American	ED	SWD	LEP
Reading	93%	100%	92%	93%	100%		93%	77%	92%
Math	92%	100%	83%	92%	100%		91%	69%	91%

Key:

ED= economically disadvantaged

SWD= Students with disabilities

LEP= Limited English Proficiency

We are firmly committed to achieving our goal of success for every child. We will celebrate our accomplishments and address our challenges. We welcome your support, comments, suggestions and involvement in our school.

Sincerely,

Principal
